As we travel through our last leg of deputation, our hearts have been encouraged and strengthened by all that God has given to us directly and through others. We praise the Lord for how He wonderfully answers your prayers for us and those to whom we minister.

LOST GIVING HEED

God has given us an unusual amount of people the past couple months who have given heed as we shared with them the entire Gospel. Instead of being met with closed ears and hard hearts, several have seriously considered their need for reconciliation with God through Christ. Pray for Steve, David, Frederica, Stephen, and the teenagers at Pizza Hot Line who were close to repentance and faith in Christ after hearing the Gospel.

Qassim and Gemmema continue to correspond with us from time to time. Gemmema's email is now working, and she has begun writing back and forth with Stephanie. Qassim has read through some of the evangelistic book I gave him but said he did not understand parts of it. Continue praying for their salvation.

CHURCHES GIVING SUPPORT

Over the past two months, the Lord provided us with four more supporting churches for us to represent as their hands, feet, and mouth to the people of Moldova. We are thrilled to see the Lord bring in our provisions as our deputation comes to a close over the next three months. Please pray for the Lord to continue bringing in our needed monthly support through the churches to whom we present our ministry and calling.

GOD GIVING PATIENCE

Stephanie is now in her last trimester with our third child. Doing regular activities are now becoming more of a challenge due to our growing son's "intervention." We praise the Lord that the pregnancy is going smoothly and that my wife is doing well with all the traveling. Please continue to pray for them both as the due date in mid-December approaches.

FRIENDS GIVING ADVICE

During a missions conference in Arkansas, I had the privilege of staying with a pastor and his family who exemplify a godly, peaceful, orderly home. The question/answer time with them helped to equip me with practical advice in parenting. We felt we have been going in the right direction but needed some fine-tuning tools.

Once I flew back to my family from that conference, I shared my two pages of notes with my wife and began implementing the helpful advice. We praise the Lord for the changes we have seen developing over the past couple weeks in ourselves and in our children.

Please pray for God to continue working in us and our children to make our home even more conformed to God's design.

MOLDOVANS GIVING HELP

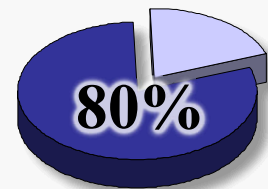

Through some friends and their contacts, there is the possibility of having our home in Moldova settled before arriving there in February. The apartment in the capitol city, Chişinău, is being renovated and will be available in January. We are waiting to see pictures, receive more details on this three bedroom apartment, and hear what the monthly rent would be. We want to be where He wants to place us in order to be next to the people he wants us to begin ministering to. Please pray for us to know and follow God's will on where He wants us to live upon arrival in Moldova.
